Product Identification:

This certificate applies to the following industrial cellular router:

- ICR-2531

Certification Statement:

This certificate confirms that the equipment model ICR-2531 has been assigned the Elexon Charge Code 8820010002100. This code is utilized within Unmetered Supply (UMS) systems to accurately calculate electricity consumption for the specified apparatus. The assignment is effective from May 21, 2025.

The Charge Code is a 13-digit identifier used to represent specific equipment types in the UMS inventory, facilitating standardized energy consumption calculations. For more information on Charge Codes and their application, please refer to Elexon's guidance on Charge Codes and Switch Regimes at www.elexon.co.uk.

Note:

This certificate is for informational purposes and should be used in conjunction with official Elexon documentation. For verification or further details, please contact Elexon's UMS Operations at ums.operations@elexon.co.uk.
